ABOUT PERFECT DAYS

Hirayama lives alone in a small house full of plants, his days going by according to quiet rhythms that never seem to change. Hirayama speaks very little and has a great passion for music, books, and the trees he loves to photograph. He drives to work in his minivan, fully equipped with his cleaning gear. As if in search of a new cinema on the road, award-winning director Wim Wenders follows his protagonist and instead discovers new places of the heart. Wenders captures the poetry of the everyday with intimacy and stunning simplicity.

Tickets $15.00 each.
